Alma Mater

Red and White, we sing our praise to you
And to our Alma Mater we will ever be true,
We hail thee, our high school fair and strong
And to our Alma Mater raise our voice in song.

So we will cheer, cheer, cheer Emporium,
The high school we love best,
Until we gain the crown of victory
We will never rest,
And though the clouds may darken
And all be storm and strife
Thy sons and daughters will uphold thee
With their very life,
So we will cheer, cheer, cheer Emporium,
Our ray of guiding light,
Our Alma Mater hail all hail
The Red and White.

Home of learning, when we leave thy halls
We will cherish all we learned within thy walls
And may thy children's deeds bring thee success
So that we all may be proud of our E. H. S.

(Repeat Chorus)

Senior Class History

In the fall of 1941, with the promise of turbulent seas and a stormy trip ahead, our ship, "The Blue and Gold," manned by enthusiastic Freshmen, set sail on a four-year course. We had begun our tedious but enjoyable voyage on the sea of education.

Like any apprentice seamen who find that seasickness is not a myth, we soon discovered that we had to weather many a storm before gaining our first objective. There were, however, moments of comic relief to temper the more serious aspects of our trip. The more seasoned "tars," the upperclassmen, looked down on us as mere novices, but we gradually became an integral part of the crew. Our Freshman dinks, made in our class colors, gave us an air of distinction. Finally Promotion Night arrived—one-fourth of our journey was completed. With saddened hearts, we received our diplomas in the gayly-decorated school auditorium.

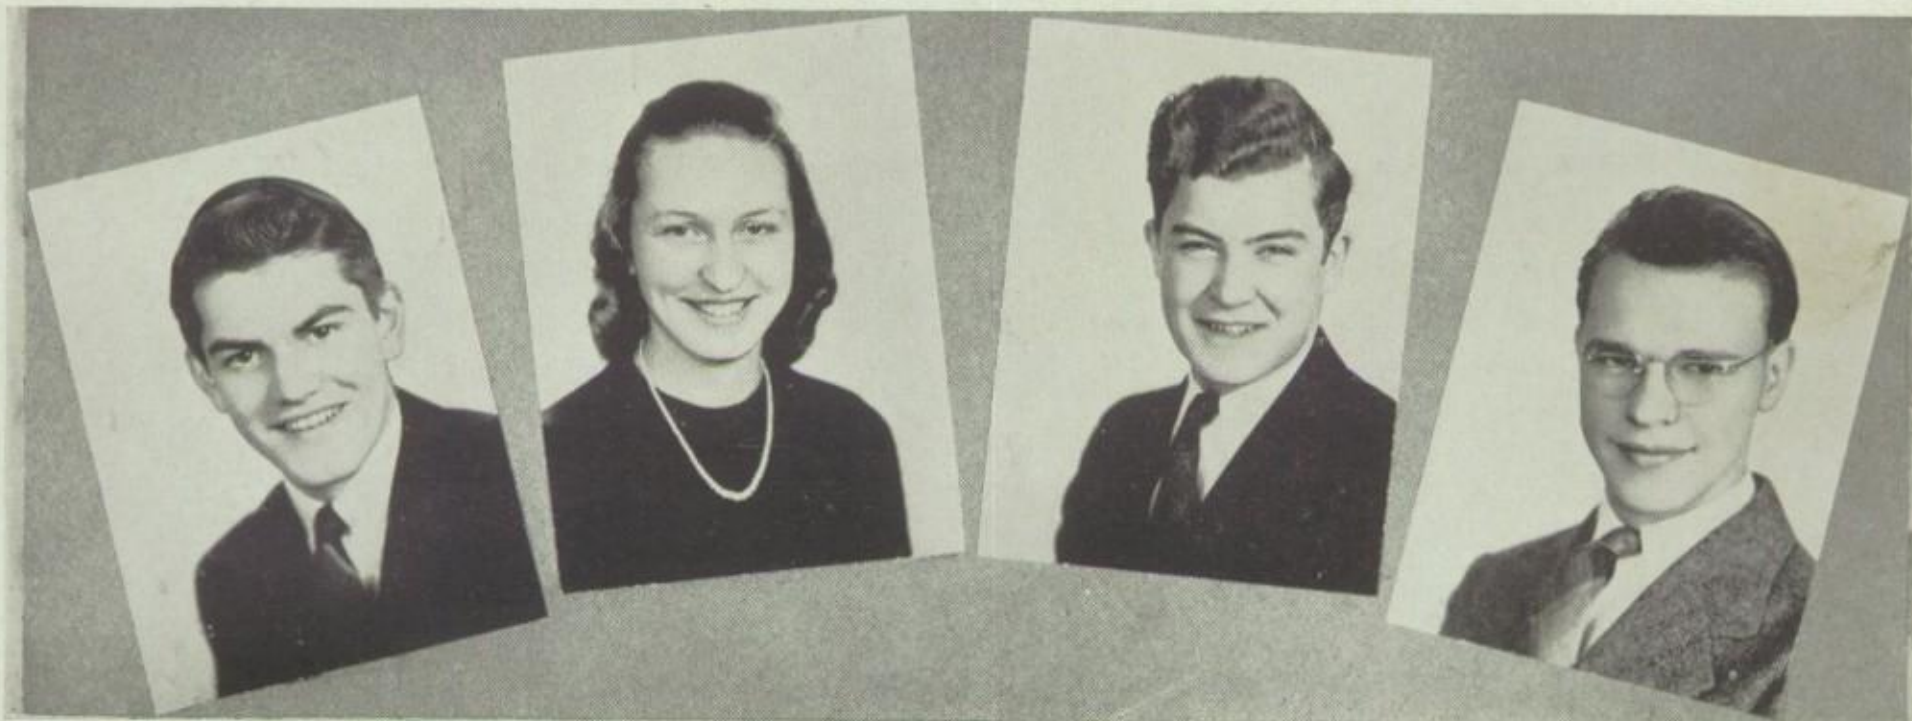

In 1942, after three months of hilarious fun and frolic, "The Blue and Gold" again left port; we were on the second lap of our voyage. Each member of our crew began this trip slightly wiser but knowing there was still more to learn. With much ado and excitement, we ordered our class rings. Before docking once more, we climaxed our Sophomore year with our annual class picnic at Sizerville.

September, 1943—we looked upon ourselves as salty mariners as we again left port. Plans for the class activities were made, and, in May, was held the Junior Prom, a fitting climax to the third leg of our voyage.

Nineteen hundred and forty-four—and at last our goal did not seem too remote, for we were full-fledged Seniors. We kept an even keel and a steady course, and our labors were beginning to bear fruit. Classes took on an added significance, and extra-curricular activities occupied much of our time. Almost immediately we began work on "The Raider," which, like the ship's log, was to be a record of our achievements and experiences. Much labor and even a few tears went into the compiling of this, our Yearbook.

Soon, for the last time, we shall enter port; with eager hearts we look forward to the final Senior activities culminating in our graduation exercises. We shall have completed the voyage as we began—Freshmen—this time on the highway of life. We face a world at war with renewed courage, heartened by the fact that ours is a rich heritage. With eager eyes, we look toward the future and with voices calling back, "Thanks—thanks for our faith in the future and for the hope in our hearts!" we leave Emporium High School.

Class Officers

JAMES BERNARD MILLER

"Toomer"

A dimpled chin, big brown eyes, tousled brown hair—not Sinatra, but "Toomer" our efficient and capable class president. Well-known in school for his bits of humor, "Toomer's" one ambition is to grow up even though he is the tallest senior boy. Like so many others, he too, prefers the Navy.

KATHARINE RUTH RISHELL

"Kathy"

If you're ever looking for someone with green eyes, dimples and a mind of her own, "Kathy," our class secretary is just the girl. Perhaps her pet saying, "wouldn't that jar your clavicle," has some connection with her main ambition—to be a surgeon!

ROBERT ARTHUR BALDWIN

"Duke"

Take a couple of blue eyes, add a physique, pour in a jigger of humor, and then some fun—stir for a few hours and you'll have "Duke," the Vice-President of the Senior Class and the leader and crooner of the Teen-age Orchestra. Duke's present aim is to join the Navy—and what a sailor!!

MANLEY DAVID EMMETT

"Davy"

"Davy," a studious-looking, well-dressed member of the Senior Class, is interested in industrial and mechanical engineering and someday hopes to study along these lines. At present, however, he is getting acquainted with life working at "Cappy's" and serving as our class treasurer.

1945

CECILIA MARIE ALLEN

"Cee"

"Cee" is the Senior girl with the "peaches and cream" complexion and the big brown eyes. Although usually seen with Carol, she has many friends throughout E. H. S. Besides Cuffy, her main likes are Fords and cokes. She hasn't as yet quite made up her mind on her future, but we are sure she will be a success in whatever she undertakes.

ROBERT VOLNEY ACHESON

"Ach"

"Ach is our funny man and the Bob Hope of the class. His subtle humor keeps us constantly in stitches—and speaking of "stitches" Ach has a mania for flashy sweaters. Treasured above all his possessions is his battered but trusty saxophone. P. S. Ach is congenial; he's 100% Navy too!!!

ANNA CHRISTINE BECK

"Chris"

"Chris," although one of our least talkative members, has proven a loyal friend to all who know her. Quiet and nonchalant, she is friendly, and contributes her share to the fun. Soon after graduation "Chris" hopes to continue her education as a Cadet Nurse.

REYNOLDS ALBERT BLACK, JR.

"Rennie"

"Rennie's" friends know that beneath his joking and gaiety is a serious side. They also know that Jean occupies many spare minutes. With his outstanding personality, it's no wonder he has such a host of good friends throughout E. H. S.

Seniors

REGIS ARMEDA BLACK

"Reg"

"Reg," a girl of mirth and glee, is a charming lass with quiet grace. In addition to photography, her interests are dancing, skating and swimming. She can be characterized by her raised eyebrow and dark curly hair. Without a doubt, her friendliness and jolly air will help "Reg" be a successful nurse.

EDSEL STEWART BRITTON

"Pretzl"

Being one of the youngest boys in the senior class hasn't proven a drawback to "Pretzl." He has a definite way with the women and all the girls are familiar with his "Hi, Bright Eyes." His aspiration after serving with the Army is to own a motorcycle so he can get around faster.

GLORIA MAE BLOOMQUIST

"Geebee"

Blue eyes, plus a dimple, plus a very unusual laugh all add up to "Geebee." A girl with a worthwhile ambition—to be a nurse, she chooses roller-skating and traveling with Rose as her pastimes. She is active in sports, enjoys reading, and you will all agree that she has a swell disposition and happy-go-lucky likeable manner.

CLAUDE ALBERT CAMPBELL, JR.

"Punchy"

To be a chief petty officer in the Navy is "Punchy's" main ambition. Basketball and drumming constitute his hobbies. With his genuine friendliness and fine cooperative spirit, "Punchy" has made many friends during his stay at E. H. S. With these qualities, he should become an officer in no time.

NATLEY BOWER BUSH

"Nat"

"Nat" believes in punctuality and really carries out her theory. Rather short, friendly, and easy-going, she is one of those girls gifted with curly hair. Her specialties seem to be dancing and Ronald. With her unique individuality, we are certain that "Nat" will make an excellent medical secretary.

DONALD EUGENE CLOSE

"Chicken"

Besides drinking cokes at Ken's, "Chicken's" main interests are basketball and farming. Basketball fans will recall all those beautiful long shots he has scored during his four years in high school. He too, likes the Navy, but from what we hear, he doesn't plan to be a sailor all his life.

LUCILLE ELLEN CRAWFORD

"Iodine"

We only get to hear her once in a while, but we all get to know "Iodine" sooner or later. Her devilish manner is quite obvious in her big blue eyes. This may account for her quaint nickname of "Iodine." Certainly her efficiency and cheery nature will help her to be "tops" as a secretary.

JOHN CALVIN CRUM

"Crum"

"Crum" is 1-A in the Navy and A-1 in our hearts. He's one of those easy-going lads who never seem to tire of laughing. His slogan must be "laugh and the world laughs with you"—with such an outlook on life, it's no wonder the Navy snatched him!

1945

MARY THERESA CRAWFORD

"Tressy"

If you hear a loud laugh in the crowd, you'll probably find "Tressy" there. This ever-cheerful Senior girl has but one dislike—Sinatra. She's always ready to drop everything to help some one, and nothing else seems to affect her very much no matter how serious. We know these qualities will affect her very much no matter how serious. We know these qualities will help to make her an excellent Cadet Nurse.

ALFRED MATTHEW DeLUCIA

"Andy"

"Andy's" stocky little figure was a familiar sight on the basketball court and the gridiron. When not participating in sports, he can be found square-dancing or driving his own private truck. After carrying the ball as a soldier for Uncle Sam, "Andy" would like to go to college.

EVELYN JULIA DROTOS

"Fritz"

"Fritz" has a personality that bubbles over. She is one of those girls who can mix with the crowd no matter what the occasion may be. "Fritz" excels in all sports and is one of our most dynamic cheerleaders. After the war she hopes to make some one a good wife.

MARK BERNARD EDELMAN

"Bud"

Have you noticed a tall quiet lad who never seems to say much? If you have, it was probably "Bud". His quiet manner has not over-shadowed his friendliness, however. We know his experience as a grease-monkey will make him an invaluable member of the Tank Corps. Here's luck to you, "Bud".

GLORIA IONA GEORGE

"Glory"

We were all glad to welcome "Glory" back into our midst after her two-year stay in Monaca, Pa. This easy-going and talkative girl can usually be heard laughing at the slightest provocation. Her cheerful disposition has won her a host of friends. As yet, "Glory" has not decided upon her future.

FRANKLIN DRELL GORE

"Bucky"

"Bucky" is one who could make himself heard if he wanted to, but doesn't. We wonder if he's really as shy as he seems to be. He is another "Sinnamahoningite" who comes to us by train. "Bucky's" main ambition at the present is to graduate, and after that he'll let Uncle Sam take care of his future.

LOUISE THERESA GRIPPO

"Gripp"

"Gripp" is one of those quiet studious girls who's welcome wherever she goes. Next to having a good time, she likes soldiers and basketball (remember all those points against the Juniors???). "Gripp" is a fast little typist, and with her optimistic outlook on life, she will make a good secretary.

JOSEPH GORDON HAYNES

"Joe"

"Joe" who makes the long journey from Sinnamahoning every morning by train, wants to help win the war by joining the Navy. His pet habit is that of crossing his feet in typing class—much to the dismay of Mr. Patterson. With his eagerness and ability, we know "Joe" will make a super sailor.

Seniors

CARROLL AILEEN GROSE

"Carol"

Definitely true blonde hair, and a cheerful smile—"Carol" likes to talk so we've all gotten to know her. Ever-laughing and ever-gay, her giggles are the despair of all the teachers. She hopes to go on to Westminster College after graduation, and we are sure that with her cheerfulness she will be quite a success.

DONALD RAY JOHNSON

"D"

"D" is another who arrives at E. H. S. by means of the railroad from Sinnamahoning. He is one of the quieter members of the Senior Class. Although he appears to be serious, we know he can and does indulge in joking at opportune moments. As yet, "D" had not decided on a definite career after he serves with the Navy.

REGINA ELSIE HORNING

"Gena"

Sedate and quiet best describes "Gena", the girl with the nice speaking voice. She has a personality that makes her one of the most likable girls of the Senior Class. With her bright smile and her knowledge of chemistry, we know "Gena" will make a 1-A nurse.

MAURICE ARTHUR JOHNSON

"Moe"

"Unpredictable Moe" is what we would call him for we never know what to expect next. "Moe", tall and carefree, spends most of his spare time roller-skating when he isn't at the garage fixing cars. His participation in football will no doubt come in handy when he gets in there tackling those Japs with the Navy.

BERTYL LARUE KINDBLOM

"Bert"

Light brown hair, flashy red shoe-strings, a smile, a wad of gum and a cheery word all add up to "Bert." She is popular and likes to have a good time. "Bert" has a peculiar ambition—she wants to drive a jeep and with her determination she will undoubtedly succeed.

CHARLES EDWARD KELLER

"Tick"

"Tick", six feet of genuine manhood is well known throughout E. H. S. for his super athletic ability. We've all seen him in action on the gridiron and basketball court. "Tick" is gay and light-hearted, but he also has a serious side. With his will-power and determination, we know he will make an ideal "salty seaman."

BEATRICE ELAINE LEAVITT

"Betty"

"Betty's" chief interest right now is in the Navy. Although she's a bit on the serious side in school, you can't help but detect the merry twinkle in her eye when she entertains us with her guitar and songs. With her good memory, ambition, and never failing friendliness, "Betty" should be a success in the stenographic field.

GLENN RICHARD LYON

"Penny"

Although one of our least talkative members, "Penny" manages to get by. He is a boy with many likes, two of which are music and candy. Spending all his spare moments fixing old cars, he has become quite adept at mechanical work. Someday in the future "Penny" hopes to own a streamlined post-war car.

1945

JETTIE RUTH LOGUE

"Jay"

Quiet, smiling, and ambitious are only a few of the adjectives that are descriptive of "Jay". We all know that she is around, that she attends classes and assembly, but her voice is seldom heard. "Where there's a will there's a way," and "Jay" certainly is determined to become a registered nurse. Here's luck to you!

WALTER CLARENCE MILLER

"Walt"

Walt is the boy with the contagious grin and the unruly brown hair. Although both studious and humorous, Walt is crazy about spaghetti, ping pong, a good time, football and the Army Air Corps. (No, fellows, he's not pessimistic—he's just not a Navy man.)

TWILA COLETTA LYON

"Twi"

"Twi" is one of the more serious girls of our class. She takes a keen interest in school work, and is a hardy participant in whatever the class undertakes. She does a great deal of studying and does it in her own quiet way. Taken together, all these qualities should help her climb to fame and future as a teacher.

MARVIN EUGENE NEWTON

"Marvin"

Marvin is another of those easy-going lads who never seems to get just the right amount of sleep. He's one of the persistent talkers of the class and many of his evenings are spent in his favorite hobby—square dancing. All his ideas are centered around the Navy and some day Marvin hopes to become an admiral.

RITA MALIZIA

"Rita"

Nice but noisy—"Rita" manages to be heard most of the time. She lists as her two chief likes eating and sleeping. Always on the go, she says boog'e-woogie is right in her line. If you have the blues, Rita will have a smile or joke to cheer you. With her never-ending cheerfulness, she will make an efficient Cadet Nurse.

JAMES EINAR SAWYER

"Jim"

Friendly, talkative, and likeable are words that describe "Jimmie". At the present he is serving the public as a grocery clerk, but in his spare time, he can be seen driving around town in a big Plymouth. Jim prefers the Navy, and his friendly smile and blue eyes will surely go well with a sailor suit.

ELEANOR JEAN MATHEWSON

"Jeannie"

"Jeannie" came into our midst at the middle of her Junior year and managed to make a place for herself right in our hearts. (Ask Reynolds for further information.) "Jeannie" believes in being seen and not heard, but she's a bundle of fun wherever she goes. She would like to join the Waves and her blue eyes will look superslick with a uniform.

ROGER HENRY SCHNEE

"Schnee"

"Schnee" with his mischievous sense of humor livens up all our classes during the day. He has a keen interest in sports and could always be seen on the sidelines cheering for our boys. With his practical joking ability and never-ending smile, he will make an ideal "Gob."

Seniors

JOSEPHINE ELAYNE McMANIGLE

"Layne"

Petite and laughing—we wonder if "Layne" has found her one and only. She is a roller skating enthusiast and one of our best cheerleaders. "Layne" is very friendly and has a smile for everyone. With her love for the Navy, we are sure that someday she'll be a good wife for some salty seaman.

EDWARD GERARD SKINNER

"Eddie"

"Good things come in small packages." This is true of "Eddie," one of the most popular boys in the class. His major sport was football, and as a bucking quarterback for the Red Raiders, he scored in many victories for E. H. S. From what we hear Nimitz had better look to his laurels as Eddie plans to be the next "Admiral of the Fleet."

CAROL IDA MINARD

"Carol"

"Carol" is 5' 3" of fun and laughter. Vivacious and likeable, she likes everyone and everyone likes her. During the year she's been the busy associate editor of the yearbook. Always poised, a conscientious worker, and a real pal, Carol ought to climb the ladder of success by leaps and bounds.

RAYMOND HOWARD SWEET

"Sweet"

"Sweet," the newest addition to the Senior Class, came to us from Northeast, Pa. Although quiet at first, he soon got into the swing of things and now is readily called "one of the gang." Although he now rides the rails from Driftwood, he soon expects to ride the waves with the U. S. N.

MARILYN AUDREY MOFFITT

"Lynn"

"Lynn" should set an example for us for adapting herself to conditions in a strange place—it certainly didn't take her long to get acquainted. Returning to us from Ridgway, she fits in like one of the crowd. Her big brown eyes and creamy complexion will certainly go nice with that nurse's uniform she's planning to wear.

FRANCIS BERNARD WINSLOW

"Mope"

Whenever an argument or debate is started, you can count on "Mope" to contribute heartfelt pros and cons (especially in P. D. class). His innocent manner characterizes his liking for peace and quietness. He seems a little bashful, but is he really??? No doubt that sleepy look will vanish when he gets in the Navy.

PEGGY LOUISE OSTRUM

"Peg"

"Peg" is one of our girl sports lovers. When it comes to talking, "Peg" is topped only by Margie. Carefree and jolly but with a serious side, too, she's always full of pep and ready to go. Although she has gobs of love for the Navy, "Peg," in the future, plans on being a gym teacher.

GEORGIANNA PEASLEY

"Georgie"

Have you chanced to meet a short, sweet girl with personality plus—that's "Georgie." Fun-loving, she says she likes to dance and laugh. She is an adept typist and her experience as chief assistant to Mr. O'Malley for the past year will be a great help to her on the road to becoming a private secretary.

1945

MARGARET ELIZABETH QUIGLEY

"Margie"

Are you looking for someone who can talk and talk and talk? Well, here's "Margie." She's a laughing, fun-loving character who likes to eat and roller skate. Her motto could easily be "a friend in need is a friend indeed," for she's not afraid of work and will help you out anytime. Someday "Margie" hopes to become a secretary.

JULIA ANN RODICH

"Judy"

Our head majorette is the cheerful, popular Senior girl whose chief aim in life today is to edit the best yearbook of EHS history. Judy has many interests—bowling, dancing, skiing, clothes, Bob, and collecting charms for her bracelet. Her efficiency will be an asset to any career.

MARGARET ROSE RUTZ

"Rose"

Blond hair, green eyes, and a smile as bright as her diamond, that's "Rose." She is another of our fun-loving Seniors who believes in boosting the morale of all. She keeps us laughing at her timely jokes and corn. "Rose" has a commendable ambition—to be a Cadet Nurse for the duration, but her ring hints of post-war plans.

MILDRED FRANCES SMITH

"Midge"

Bashful is a word describing "Midge," one of our quietest members. She is one of those optimistic people who dislikes nothing and has a crazy love for cowboy music. After graduation "Midge" is going to school and study to be a missionary. Here's luck to you in your chosen field!

DENISE ISABELLA STEEN

"Denny"

This music loving Senior girl can usually be seen with a book in her hands. Denny is always willing to contribute her bit to a conversation or a good time. Her head tells her to be a teacher, but her heart tells her to be a hostess on a pleasure cruiser visiting all the places she loves to read about.

JOLIET YVONNE TRONCONE

"Julie"

"Julie" always seems to be in a hurry even if she does have plenty of time. Her enigmatic smile goes well with her dancing dark eyes and coal-black hair. Julie is a studious girl but she has still found time to gather many friends. She's so sincere and determined that she is bound to be a success as a nurses' aid.

MARTHA JANE ZIMMER

"Zim"

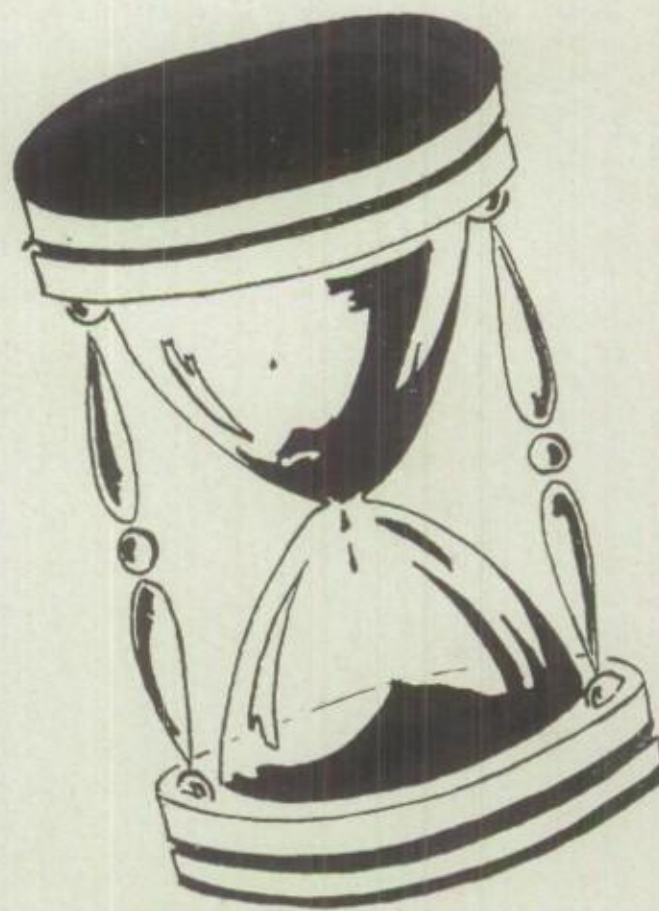

"Zim" never seems to grow, but her presence is always known. This happy-go-lucky girl is full of fun and likes a hearty laugh anytime. She can usually be seen with a certain trio of Senior girls and always enjoying herself. Although she hasn't decided on her future, her "gift of gab" will carry her through.

HELEN IRENE ZOSCHG

"Zoski"

If you've seen her handwriting, I need say no more, for her neat penmanship describes "Zoski's" personality. Although a little on the bashful side, she's our dependable friend in need. Tall, slim, and always looking on the sunny side of life, she's welcome wherever she goes.

Class Will

We, of the Class of '45, after having taken our vitamin pills faithfully for four years along with unpleasant doses of teachers and homework, and still being sound in mind and body, do hereby establish and ordain this document as our last will and testament.

Cee Allen leaves her "cuff" links to Mart Balcom.

Raymond Sweet wills his train rides to his sister.

Christine Beck leaves Bob for the Junior girls to fight over.

Ed Skinner leaves the halls strangely quiet.

Regis Black leaves her curly hair to Jean LaBorde.

Roger Schnee wills his walk to Jim Tompkins.

Gloria Bloomquist leaves her dislike for sailors to Mary Zelenz.

Jim Sawyer just leaves.

Natley Bush wills "Stinky" to Fern.

Marvin Newton leaves school—with a sigh of relief!

Lucille Crawford leaves her ability to tease people to Kay Bush.

The Senior boys leave Mr. Patterson to the future Senior boys. Heaven help 'em!! or him!!

Walter Miller wills his cow-lick to Johnny Dexter.

Evelyn Drotos leaves her soldier, sailor, and paratrooper to the U. S. O.

Toomer Miller leaves as sleepy as he entered.

Mary Crawford wills her humor to Mary Schreffler.

Francis Winslow leaves his scientific thinking to George Herrick.

Glenn Lyon leaves his crew haircut to "Beaky."

Tick Keller leaves the girls still guessing!!!

Louise Grippo leaves her books and takes her knowledge.

Moe Johnson wills his skating ability to the Misses Kennedys'.

Carol Grose leaves her junky locker to Phyllis McManigle.

The Senior girls leave with the Senior boys—tuff, juniors!!!

Don Johnson leaves his "peek-in-the-window-technique" to the reporters of the Press Club.

Regina Horning wills her EARNEST ambition to be a nurse to Vivian Lewis.

Bert Kindblom leaves her profile to Bill Minard.

Franklin Gore wills his nickname to anyone who wants it.

Betty Leavitt absolutely refuses to leave her sailor.

David Emmett leaves his pin-up girls to Bob Grippo.

Jettie Logue leaves her chemistry grades to Emma Louise Marshall.

Mark Edelman leaves his shyness toward girls to Roland Turley.

Twila Lyons wills her ability to get up early to Lorraine Tilburg.

Alfred DeLucia leaves his truck to Gibby Oswald.

The Senior boys leave the lower classwomen broken-hearted—as usual!

Rita Malazia wills her jitterbugging ability to Jean Severin.

Johnny Crum wills his personality to Jeanne Haley.

Jean Mathewson leaves her big blue eyes to Jim Hammersley.

Class Will

Cuffy Cox leaves with a Cee.

Elayne McManigle wills her blush to Joe DiBello.

Donald Close wills his basketball outfit to Bee.

Carol Minard leaves her locker in the Senior boys' homeroom to Shirley Mae.

Claude Campbell leaves his neat sport jackets to Bernard Sassman.

Lynn Moffitt leaves her liking for Ridgway to her sister.

Edsel Britton wills his wolfing technique to Bernie Cussins to keep up the "Cassanova" tradition.

Peg Ostrum leaves singing "Oh Johnny" with a "crummy" attitude toward life.

Reynolds Black leaves with Jeannie.

To next year's Senior girls, the present ones leave Miss Kennedy. They'll need her advice.

Georgie Peasley leaves still swooning over Frankie—and we don't mean Sinatra.

Bob Baldwin leaves his physique to Earl Dill.

The Senior girls leave the pictures in their homeroom to whoever can buy frames for them.

Marg Quigley doesn't want to leave—"Kreakie".

Bob Acheson wills his mustache to Zeke Kinsler.

Judy Rodich bequeaths her drum majorette outfit to any girl who fits in it as neatly as she does.

Martha Zimmer leaves still dragging her ring.

Katharine Rishell leaves her title as "Posture Queen" to anyone who can earn it.

Helen Zoschg leaves her bashfulness to the three noisy Freshmen girls, J., H., and J.

Rose Rutz leaves her freckles to Fuzz's collection.

Denise Steen leaves her long walks to school to Patty LaSitis.

Julie Troncone leaves 145 chewed-off fingernails to any Junior that worries as much about shorthand as she does!

Mildred Smith wills her quietness to Ginny.

The Senior girls leave their precious mirror to Mr. Patterson to pass on to future Seniors.

With suspiciously moist eyes but squared shoulders, we set in witness thereof, our last seal.

Signed:

The Raider Staff

Class Prophecy

"All aboard! All aboard! for Emporium and points east!" yelled the conductor. With a sudden realization that this was the train we must take, we dashed to it and hopped aboard. The purpose of our trip was to attend the reunion of the Class of '45. Ten long years had passed and we were anxious to find out what had happened to the rest of our class. We were no sooner seated when the conductor came through the car. We thought he looked familiar and, sure enough, it was Raymond Sweet. While we were talking to him, he told us that Bucky Gore was the engineer, Don Johnson was the fireman and Joe Haynes was the cook. It seems that those four fellows just couldn't bear to leave the "Pennsy."

Soon we neared a station and when the train jerked to a stop loads of former classmates piled on. The coach changed from a silent one to one comparable to a busy beehive—everyone buzzing at once! We didn't know whom to talk to first so we just ambled to the nearest person, Bob Baldwin, the most eligible bachelor in Hollywood. Next to him sat Rita Malizia who, after jitterbugging her way through school, ended up as Donald O'Connor's dancing partner. As we were talking to them, Toomer Miller turned around and supplied us with the information that he had just broken the world's record for speed and was now America's No. 1 motorcyclist.

Not many seats in front of them were Twila Lyon and Carol Grose busily talking over their experiences. Twila was now owner of a large dude ranch in the West and Carol had just returned to the States from China as a missionary. In front of them was Mildred Smith who proudly informed us that she had married a millionaire and was now a "lady of leisure." On the same seat sat Natley Bush, a violinist with the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Farther ahead were Moe Johnson, Mark

Edelman and Glenn Lyon—each trying to out-talk the other as usual. By listening to their "gab-fest" we found out that Moe and Mark were co-owners of one of the largest airplane-gasoline stations in the clouds. We stopped to talk to Glenn who kindly offered to take us to the baggage car to see his new "glass-plastic" automobile.

To get a breath of fresh air, we went to the platform where we met Roger Schnee, the first Republican president since Roosevelt came into office, and Francis Winslow, vice-president. They interrupted their talk on government affairs long enough to inform us that General Alfred DeLucia would not be here because he was having too much fun in the South Sea Islands. Coming to the platform from the other coach were Admiral John Crum and his wife, Peg Ostrum who was a gym teacher at a Wave Training Base. As we received this last bit of news, the train stopped at a station.

We decided to get off and look around before the train started on its way again. Coming toward us were three nurses who were chattering about their work and that handsome doctor! These nurses turned out to be Regina Horning, Jettie Logue and Lynn Moffitt. Standing near the door of the phone booth was Rose Rutz. She told us she had just called Johnny to find out how he was managing the eight little boys.

Because the train was due to start in a few minutes, we climbed aboard. Turning around for one last look, we saw a sight that was quite familiar during our school days. Elayne McManigle, Marg Quigley, Bert Kindblom and Ed Skinner were running—this time to catch the train. We helped them aboard and added more information to what we already learned. Elayne was the roller skating star in the Roller Vanities of 1955. Marg and Bert had just returned from Alaska where they had made their fortunes and Eddie, noted explorer, informed us he had finally found a new route to Russia.

As we turned to go into the coach, we bumped into Judy Rodich, Claude Campbell and Katharine Rishell. Judy, still looking at the world through rose-colored glasses, was just traveling. Claude had left "Cappy's" and now owned the Campbell Clothing Store in New York City. Kathy told us that she was a surgeon for Uncle Sam.

We slowly continued our way into the next coach. Here we glimpsed an interesting trio in the far end of the car. Walter Miller, Olympic Basketball Champ, sat listening to the singing of Regis Black and Betty Leavitt, stars on their own musical program. Opposite them was Dave Emmett who was busily engaged in drawing scrumptious pictures of the girls around him since he was Art Editor of ESQUIRE and obviously all wrapped up in his work. Julie Troncone, a Power's model, was next on his list.

Suddenly we heard some familiar wild whoops and wheeling around we saw Mary and Lucille Crawford who were the acclaimed feminine versions of Abbott and Costello. After this outburst, our eyes fell on a neat-looking Wave who turned out to be Carol Minard, Chief Stenographer 1/c.

Walking down the aisle were Denise Steen and Jean Mathewson. We learned from them that Denise was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Eleanor Jean was a civil service worker in Washington.

We then went into the diner where we found Bob Acheson telling Don Close that he was Master of Ceremonies on "Information Please." Don, not to be outdone, began bragging about his chicken that had laid a golden egg, thus enabling him to go on this trip. At another table sat Gloria Bloomquist and Gloria George. Both were eating, but they stopped long enough to tell us that Gloria Bloomquist was Head Nurse at the Walter Reed Hospital and Gloria George was kept busy keeping house for Joe and some little "blondies."

In a few minutes the train slowed to a stop and the conductor yelled "Cameron!" We knew we were almost at our destination. Soon our conductor popped his head in the door to announce that the Mayor of Cameron had just boarded the train. No sooner did he say this when in walked Edsel Britton with a high silk hat perched on his head.

Finally we arrived in Emporium and there at the station were the classmates who had remained in Emporium to keep the town going. There was Tick Keller, coach of the unbeatable Red Raiders; Cuffy Cox, manager of the Cabin Kitchen; Marvin Newton, owner of the Happiness Nite Club. Behind these fellows stood Cee Allen and Christine Beck. Cee was now head of the Personnel Department of Sylvania and Christine was her personal secretary. Jim Sawyer, proprietor of the Quality Cash, Inc., was talking to Reynolds Black, superintendent of the Machine Shop. Near the door of the station stood Evelyn Drotos and Louise Grippo, Evelyn was the owner of the Ladies Bazaar and Louise, in ten years, had worked her way up to President of the Emporium Trust Company. Sitting on a baggage cart were Martha Zimmer, co-owner of the Esso Station in West Creek, Georgie Peasley who was now secretary to the principal of E. H. S., and Helen Zoschg, foreman of the Finishing Department of the Sylvania.

Once again our class was together, and after the initial excitement had subsided, and the accomplishments of a decade were generally publicized, the conversation automatically drifted back to the old familiar—"Remember When?"

Junior Class History

In September, 1942, the class of 1946 entered E. H. S. "green" but determined. Red and gray were chosen as our class colors and Freshmen hats and emblems were ordered. To our credit is the sponsoring of a very successful dance. The most important event was promotion night and our last gathering as Freshmen was a picnic held at Sizerville Park.

We were now launched on our high school careers. Of all the events of our Sophomore year, the selection of class rings was most important. A skating party was held at S. E. A. Center, and later in the year, a leap-year dance was sponsored by our class. Our second year ended with a class picnic held at Sizerville.

We elected the following officers for our Junior year:

President	James Tompkins
Vice-President	Richard LaBrozzi
Secretary	Patricia McNarney
Treasurer	Shirley Summerson

After the excitement caused by the arrival of our long-awaited class rings died down, we settled ourselves for a very busy year. The class play, "Spring Fever," was selected and went down in the annals of Junior history as an overwhelming success. While the commotion caused by the play was still more than a mere memory, we directed our attention to the annual Junior Prom, a gala affair held in honor of the departing Seniors.

First row: S. Peters, W. Ackman, G. Jones, K. Bush, C. Davis, K. Winslow, J. Palmateer, E. Doll, P. Mawn.
 Second row: P. Kennedy, G. Myers, W. Ober, B. Felt, B. Agliardo, P. Zimmers, O. Uber, N. Wright C. Moffitt.

 Fifth row: J. Hathaway, E. Horning, C. Taylor, W. Gennocro, C. Rinehuls, R. Fauver, M. Ford, R. Bennett, H. Gribble, Miss Kennedy.
 Sixth row: D. Cox, D. DeSio, R. Brown, G. Oswald, W. Minard, W. Averill.
 Seventh row: J. Parish, C. Welsh, P. Swank, C. Whitmer, G. Moody, W. Faust, Mr. Bricker.

Sophomore History

We, the class of '47, entered EHS eighty strong and soon were easily distinguished by our red and blue class hats. During our Freshman year, we held a highly enjoyable skating party, but Promotion Night outshone this and all other events of the year. To climax a successful year, we held our annual picnic at Sizerville.

Officers elected for our Sophomore class are as follows:

President	Charles Rinehuls
Vice-President	Janet Palmateer
Secretary	Darles Kreakie
Treasurer	Anna Allen

The Sophomore Hop, held in honor of the football team, will be remembered as the highlight of our Sophomore year. All was quiet following the selection of class rings until the girls organized a basketball team which, despite its bruises, survived a busy season. An interesting sidelight of the year was the appearance of the Silverfish, which was enthusiastically adopted as Class Mascot.

We are eagerly anticipating the arrival of our class rings, and are just as eagerly awaiting the day of our class picnic. These momentous events symbolize a successful Sophomore year.

Freshmen Class History

Our summer vacation was over, and before we knew it, there we were—Freshmen!! Class activities started with enthusiasm when we held our first class meeting and elected officers as follows:

President	Frank Allen
Vice-President	Sam Fapore
Secretary	Lois Minard
Treasurer	Frank Blumle

After much debate kelly green and gold were chosen as our class colors. We then ordered the traditional Freshmen dinks.

The highlight of the year was our assembly program, "The Musical Review," featuring the girls of the Freshman Class.

Having completed the year of trials and tribulations of being Freshmen, we look forward with confidence to our future years in Senior High.

Emporium Schools Band

Many students of Senior High and Junior High school take advantage of an added opportunity, both educational and recreational, by joining the Emporium High School Band directed by Mrs. McNaughton.

Not only do these students learn instrumental music and music appreciation but also manage their own affairs under the constitution which was adopted when the organization was first formed.

Letters of red chenille are awarded at the end of every school year to all members who have earned the sufficient number of merits. These are given for playing in concerts, taking lessons, being on committees and extra work. An additional award is presented to all seniors who have rendered faithful services throughout their band or orchestra membership.

This musical organization plays for school activities, athletic events and community functions.

Library Club

"To help and delight others" may well be the motto of this active organization. The willing members of the Library Club assist the librarian and are entirely responsible for the attractive displays in the library. Through the year various themes such as books, transportation, seasonal sports, occupations, holidays and current events have been demonstrated periodically.

Although the eager members of this club have enjoyed a few delightful parties, the main event of the year was a comical play presented for enjoyment in the auditorium.

Modern Miss Club 2

"To have striven, to have made an effort, to have been true to certain ideals . . . that alone is worth the struggle."—Sir William Osler.

These are the purposes and ideals of the club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Welsh. The members endeavor to improve their personal appearance and manners by following the plans presented in their Personality Handbook. These topics will add personality and charm to the future "Senior Highers."

Tumbling Club

This club, composed of the "weaker sex", provides an outlet for the extra energy of all sport-minded girls. Under the watchful eye of Miss Whitsell, the sponsor, these active girls do some fast and tricky tumbling.

The primary activity of the club is tumbling although these girls are not content with this sport alone. They not only participate in the main activity of the club, but also in bowling, volleyball and basketball.

Although it is a newly organized club, we are sure that it will continue in popularity through the coming years. We only hope that the future Tumbling Clubs will be as successful as this one of 1945.

The Red Cross Club

The Red Cross Club, sponsored by Miss McCarthy is one of our most active clubs. The energetic members of this club are always found busily engaged in some type of work that will bring cheer to wounded soldiers or to homeless children.

The making of pine cone decorations and stuffed animals, the repairing of toys, and the collecting of games are a few of the year's undertakings. In addition to these activities this club sponsored the successful Junior Red Cross Drive in the schools.

Some of the highlights of the year were the Christmas party and other "get together" parties; however, an exhilarating sleigh ride was the main event.

Forestry Club

The Forestry Club is composed of those boys who love the great outdoors. Since they are interested in all phases of forestry, their club period is usually taken up by a free-for-all discussion on some problem dealing with forests.

The most important function of this club, however, is fighting forest fires. During the spring and fall emergency periods, these boys, with the help of most of the Senior boys, fight all fires in the vicinity of Emporium.

Despite the fact that the work has been hard, these student fire-fighters have done a wonderful job. Let's all give them a well-deserved note of thanks for their unselfish services.

To master the games of Chess and Checkers is the aim of this club. Under the guidance of Mr. Welsh, the club sponsor, these boys are being taught the technique of playing chess and checkers.

These future experts can be seen busily engaged in tense and exciting games every Thursday afternoon. Some have already become champs; others are still plodding along hoping for that stroke of luck in order to win a game.

Football and Basketball Club

Fall-school-football—somehow these three items seem to go together, for with the coming of Fall, we have not only the beginning of the school year but also the beginning of another football season. The members, in tattered but glorious uniforms, can be seen practicing football in preparation for the scheduled games. As the season drew to an end, a sadness, lightened only by the anticipation of basketball, veiled their faces. The fellows then put their hearts and souls into perfecting the arts of passing, shooting, and dribbling, and their efforts were amply rewarded by a soaring total score.

The boys who worked hard and played harder deserve much credit for successful seasons in both football and basketball.

Press Club

The most widely publicized and one of the most popular clubs in the school is, without a doubt, the Press Club. Thanks to the reporters' eagle eyes, timely comments, and their originality in writing, we have a highly esteemed news column. In addition to these "snoopy" reporters, we have the mail box which has brought remarkable results.

Throughout the year they keep an ear by tongue account of everything that should, could, or would happen within the walls of E. H. S. If you're in the market for a serious editorial, gossipy news, witty poetry, cut and dried jokes, or a Senior close-up, just consult the Hi-Herald.

Aviation Club

"On the Beam" is a slang expression which best describes the members of the Aviation Club. The air of quiet industry which is prevalent in the clubroom is evidence of a growing, industrious organization.

Although they are interested in all phases of aviation, their chief interest is in building model airplanes. These air-minded boys have constructed some excellent models and plan to complete many more.

Keep up the good work, boys—maybe someday soon you'll be working on the real thing.

Varsity "E" Club

The traditional Varsity "E" Club has come down to us through the years as one of the most active clubs in E. H. S. Its membership is limited exclusively to the boys on the football and basketball teams, who after having earned their Varsity "E" are voted in by the members and then admitted only after gruelling initiation.

During football season they can be found at the field practicing and improving their technique of blocking, tackling, and punting; during basketball season they can be seen in the gymnasium perfecting the arts of dribbling, passing and shooting.

The main topic of interest at present is the sweaters that all of the members of the Varsity "E" will soon be proudly wearing around the premises.

Choral Club

The Choral Club is primarily a hobby club, but the members of the student body have enjoyed the results of that avocation. Pupils are afforded the opportunity of displaying their singing talents as well as receiving further vocal instruction under the tutelage of Miss Cromer. The Choral Club not only seeks to create beauty, but desires to share it with others. On Thursdays, while other clubs are in session, this group can be heard indulging in the pastime of singing. In addition to presenting extra numbers in assemblies and concerts, our Choral Club adds much to the success of Civic Club meetings and to our own commencement.

Majorettes

The quartet of majorettes in their trim cream and gold uniforms led by Judy Rodich are the pride and joy of E. H. S. In perfect step, nimbly twirling their batons, these girls lead the parade while the band supplies the musical background to their peppy struts.

Last year a Majorette Club was formed to train future "high-steppers" the intricacies of twirling. From this club four girls were selected to add color and distinction to the band—and when the cymbals crash and the trumpets blare—"eyes right—the majorettes are on the march."

Cheerleaders'

Yeah team—fight, fight, fight!!! yell the sextet of cheerleaders as they spur our team on to victory.

This year four new cheerleaders were chosen to synchronize their spirit and sparkle with that of our two veteran leaders, Elayne and Evelyn.

The girls in their flashy red and white uniforms are morale builders that any team would be proud to acknowledge. Whether it is during football or basketball season, the cheerleaders are always on the job, blending their voices with those of the student body raucously urging the team onward and upward!!!

Teen-Age Orchestra

"Magic is the music" of the Teen Age Orchestra. This orchestra with its fine renditions beckons many students to the SEA on Friday nights. Here, under the leadership of the maestro, Bobby Baldwin, the orchestra gives forth with music and whether it be sweet, sentimental or hot, it is played with an excellent style.

Although it is not a school function, the orchestra has received the wholehearted support and approval of the student body. The credit for the organization of the Teen Age Orchestra is given to Father Daily, for it was through his aid and encouragement that the orchestra came into being.

Football

As graduation approaches, we begin to reminisce about our high school life. Some of our fondest memories are the football pep-meetings and the grid-iron battles. On the crisp autumn Saturday afternoons the Emporium High School student body could be seen hurrying to the Pine Street Stadium to witness the tense moment of the kickoff and the exciting minutes tha followed.

Those boys who participated in the contests have memories all the richer, for they have known the feeling of a hard block or a vicious tackle. We, as spectators, took pride in seeing Emporium emerge the victor of a hard-fought game. Even though the boys were the vanquished in some contests, we were still happy and confident that our boys did their best.

The squad of 1944-1945 will be remembered as the one which put Emporium back into interscholastic competition, and as one which reminded opponents that we still had a formidable aggregation.

The pride that we feel when we think of our football squad is a feeling that will not be diminished in the years to come.

On The Gridiron

The Red Raiders opened their '44 season by playing a scoreless tie with a strong Port Allegany eleven. It was an exciting game from start to finish featured by strong line play and terrific blocking. Both teams were evenly matched although Emporium held the advantage in first downs.

E. H. S. eked out a victory over the Bradford Jr's. Long runs and vicious tackling proved a little too much for the gallant Owls. Emporium romped to a touchdown seven plays after the opening kickoff and added an extra point to make it 7-0. Bradford retaliated with a beautiful 70 yard drive that netted them a T. D. Their extra-point failed. That ended the scoring for the first half. Emporium got 7 points in the third quarter with a well-executed series of reverses and end runs. Bradford scored early in the final period and was threatening when the gun sounded ending the game. The score was Raiders 14, Bradford 13.

Emporium took a trip upstate to play the mighty Wolves of Kane. The first half was a see-saw battle with neither team reaching the promised land. Then the Wolves mixed a beautiful air attack and bucking tactics to the tune of two touchdowns and two extra points. The last period brought an Emporium rally of six points which left them just one point shy of a tie. Final score was Wolves 14, Raiders 13.

A powerful Curwensville team drubbed Emporium to the tune of 25-6. It was the drastic first quarter which beat Emporium. In this period Curwensville scored three of its four touchdowns. From then on Emporium kept the rampaging coal miners on fairly even terms.

Emporium faced Johnsonburg Bluejays in a sea of slush and mud. It was an enjoyable game—for " 'Burg." They swamped us by the score of 34-0.

Emporium played its last game of the season at Pine Street Stadium on Armistice Day. They used some of their potential energy with a crushing triumph over Kane Wolves. It was sweet revenge for the Red Raiders who had been beaten by Kane earlier in the season and it was a fine way to end the season. The final score stood E. H. S. 33, Kane 12.

Basketball

Emporium raked up many victories on the court, combining a fast-breaking, deadly offense with an almost impenetrable defense.

The team was captained by Charles Keller whose all-around basketball ability gave us one of the most formidable centers in this section. Other invaluable members of the varsity included Donald Close, James Hammersley, and Alfred DeLucia as forwards; Walter Miller, Darles Kreakie, and James Tompkins as guards.

Although Emporium was defeated in several close encounters, we outscored our opponents 604 to 561, but win or lose, the many pleasant experiences will be dug up and talked over whenever the team of 1944-45 gets together.

Basketball

ST. MARY'S PUBLIC

E. H. S. opened its basketball season with little practice but lots of spirit by dropping a close contest to St. Mary's Public High 26-18. The Dutchmen's defense proved too much for the Red Raiders.

JOHNSONBURG

The Raiders playing Johnsonburg on our court suffered their second straight defeat by a score of 24-18. Poor passing and erratic foul shooting were the dominating reasons for the defeat.

JOHNSONBURG

Johnsonburg nosed out the Red Raiders in a return match on "Burg's" court. With fifteen seconds remaining we led 33-32 but one of "Burg's" capable forwards dropped a long shot in to steal the bacon from us.

ST. MARY'S PUBLIC

The Red Raiders traveled to Public and took a 52-21 trouncing. It was the poorest game we played all season.

COUDERSPORT

In a rough and tumble contest which featured thirty-seven personal fouls, Coudersport's Purple Falcons defeated the Red Raiders by the score of 28-17.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC

An undefeated Central Quintet swamped Emporium to the tune of 57-25. Central's brilliant passing and ball handling plus rebound control were the dominating factors in the Crusader's victory.

BRADFORD

The darkest day of the campaign occurred when the Red Raiders took a terrific beating at the hands of the Bradford Owls, 70-23. Healy, Lloyd, and Ellison of the Owls combined to a score of 44 of Bradford's 70 points.

RENOVO

In a fast-moving contest, the featured brilliant ball-handling and set-shooting Emporium came out of the rut to play "heads up" ball for the first time in the season. St. Joe "nosed out" a fast Emporium quintet 32-27.

AUSTIN

The Raiders superb-passing and one-handed shooting defeated the Austin quintet by the score of 71-16. It was our first victory of the season.

ST. MARYS CATHOLIC

Central, still undefeated, "eked out" a victory over a strong Red Raider five, 33-29. The Red Raiders, outplaying the Crusaders for the last three quarters of the game, won a moral victory.

AUSTIN

Emporium defeated an erratic Austin five in a return tussle at the High School Gymnasium. Emporium dominated the contest from start to finish. The final score was 73-23.

LOCK HAVEN

E. H. S. jumped to a 9-0 lead over Lock Haven Central High School and by alert passing and brilliant one-handed shooting defeated the boys from Nittany Valley by the thumping score of 62-22.

BRADFORD

Emporium nosed out a fast shooting St. Bernard's five by the score of 29-25. Emporium led at the half 10-9, but St. Bernard took a lead early in the third quarter. In the final minutes, the Raiders sank four baskets and turned defeat into victory.

RENOVO

E. H. S. fouled their way to defeat at the hands of St. Joe Catholic High School. The Raiders committed 24 personal fouls and our opponents sank 17 of them. The final score was 39-27.

COUDERSPORT

Our team defeated Coudersport in a thrilling contest, 31-25. The Raiders had to stave off a last quarter threat which brought the score 29-17 to our final five point margin.

LOCK HAVEN

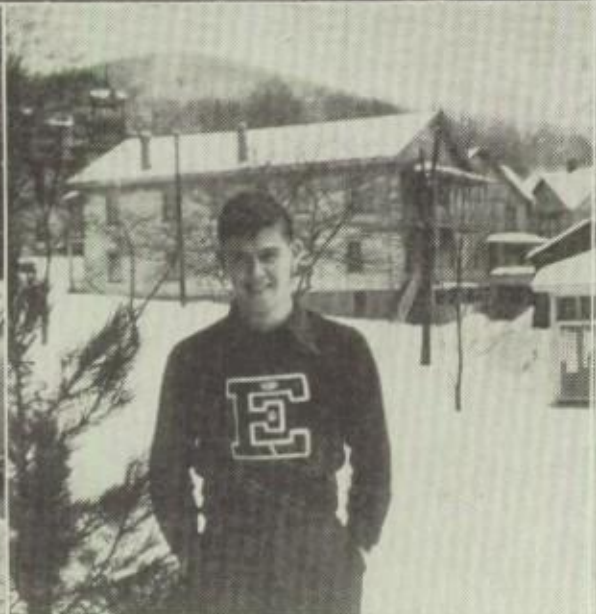

The Raiders chalked up a victory over Lock Haven, 50-26. After the half, which ended 20-10, the Raiders pulled away and never again were seriously challenged.

BRADFORD

Emporium closed its basketball season by defeating St. Bernards in a return game, 48-29. The second half was comparatively even, although Emporium enjoyed a first half lead of 25-9.
